

THE GAZETTE.

JANESVILLE, WEDNESDAY, MAY 7.

DEPRESSION OF THE CATTLE MARKET.

Ever since 1886 there has been a depressed condition of the cattle market. The price of beef to consumers has not naturally decreased in that time, but the price stock growers have received for their cattle has not been high enough to give them a fair profit for their investment. There has been such a wide difference between the low prices farmers have received for their stock and the comparatively high retail prices the people have been compelled to pay for their meat, that congress ordered an investigation into the cause. In May, 1888, a committee was authorized to examine all questions touching the meat product of the United States, and in November of that year a special committee was appointed which began work in that month at St. Louis. The committee met from time to time in different cities and collected a vast amount of testimony on the subject which has been submitted to congress.

Before giving the remedies proposed by the committee headed by Senator Vest, of Missouri, it may be well to submit to the readers of the Gazette a few figures showing the wonderful increase in the receipt of cattle at the stock yards at Chicago from 1866 to 1899:

BRIEFLETS.

Major St. John has a solid back-bone. There are no horns on Janesville's mayor.

A. O. U. W. dance and reception at the Army to-night.

Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

The Church Club will meet next Monday evening with Miss Jessie Ziegler, Park Place, third ward. This will be the last meeting of the club.

The ladies of the Rectory Society of Christ church, gave one of their popular suppers at Katiworth block last night. They served hot waffles and maple syrup to a large number.

Mrs. Carrington's sale of manufacturers' sample has been very flitting, and at request of many ladies, she will continue the sale up to Saturday, inclusive. There never was such a chance to obtain tea gowns at a house robe.

Call, opposite postoffice.

At the session of the Madison Presbyterian at the Presbyterian church this evening, the question of the late supreme court decision on the Edgerton bible case, will be discussed. Rev. Dr. W. A. McAtee, of Madison, will take a prominent part. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Compliments and congratulations were showered upon Mayor St. John last evening for the bold and manly position he took on the licor question. Religious people, temperance men and women regardless of previous political associations, are to-day shouting "God bless our noble mayor."

The saloon men are very quietly falling into line and will "face the music" by plunking down their four hundred dollar license fee. It's no use to "back against Mayor St. John. He's one of those Davy Crockett sort of men—"Be sure you're right, then go ahead." He has gone ahead—clear up at the head of the procession, wearing the golden crown.

Enthusiastic temperance advocates re-echoed the Gazette to bring out its cannon and fire a salute in honor of the bold stand taken by Mayor St. John on the license question. The Gazette is sorry it cannot comply. The artillery was used up in the recent factory boom, and the piece has been sent to the foundry for repairs, and probably will not be ready for service before the idea of November next. But the Gazette will give expression to public sentiment, and "hurrah for St. John."

Mrs. Anna M. Calkins sold to-day her two houses, 105 and 107 South Jackson street. The sale was made through the real estate agency of Geo. L. & Sarah H. Carrington.

THE GRAND LODGE.

They are in Session at Concordia Hall To-day.

The Grand Lodge of the state of Wisconsin Ancient Order of United Workmen, convened at Concordia Hall this morning. The attendance was very large, about one hundred and twenty-five lodges being represented from all over the state. The meeting was presided over by Grand Master Workman C. D. Tillinghast, of Bloomer, Wisconsin, and Grand Recorder H. O. Heath, of La Crosse. All of the grand officers are present as follows:

Past Grand Master Workman, T. H. Hornick, Oshkosh; Grand Master Workman C. D. Tillinghast, Bloomer; Grand Foreman H. H. Zahn, Milwaukee; Grand Overseer T. K. Dunn, Elroy; Grand Guide C. B. Carter, Ft. Atkinson; Grand Recorder H. O. Heath, La Crosse; Grand Recorder J. H. Marston, Appleton; Grand Watchman J. P. Belsam, Hudson.

Grand Trustees, E. Steiger, Prairie du Chien; W. T. Woodward, Neillsville; M. T. Moore, La Crosse; State Medical Examiner D. O. Beebe, Sparta; Supreme Representatives, J. F. Flint, Menomonie; W. A. Walker, Manitowish; and T. H. Hornick, Oshkosh, are also present.

The Myers house is headquarters for the workmen, and is a lively place at noon and evening, and about seventy-five or more are quartered there.

To-night the grand reception and ball will be tendered them at the armory. The session will last probably all of to-morrow.

FINE COLTS AND STOCK.

Some of the Fine Animals Owned by Hon. Andrew Barless.

Hon. Andrew Barless, of the town of Hornum, has a colt twenty-one months and one day old weighing one thousand three hundred pounds. It was raised by Mr. Andrew Barless, the sire and dam being imported Clydes by Galbraith Brothers.

Another Clyde colt of the same blood, only a few days old, Mr. Barless has been offered six hundred dollars for at four months old.

Several years ago Mr. Barless purchased a pair of thoroughbred short horn heifers at the Chicago exhibition, paying a handsome price. Many had their doubts about his over getting his money back. He informed a Gazette reporter the other day that already he had more than got his money back from the sale of bull calves, besides he now has eighteen head of fine registered short horns in his pasture, raised from the original stock. Mr. Barless is thoroughly convinced that it pays to raise the best, as it costs no more than to raise the poorest stock.

Notice to Builders.

Hanson & Co.

The building to be completed and ready for occupation by June 25, 1890.

The board of directors reserve the right to reject all bids.

The contractor will be required to give bonds to be approved by the board of directors, for the proper fulfillment of contract.

ALEX. GRAHAM, Secretary.

THE MADISON PRESBYTERY.

They Convene at the First Presbyterian Church Last Evening.

At the First Presbyterian church last evening, the Madison Presbytery convened at 7:30 o'clock, and after the opening exercises the retiring moderator, the Rev. J. H. Ritchey, of Portage, delivered an eloquent sermon. (He took for his text, the fourth chapter and twenty-eighth verse of Mark: "For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.") His sermon was very interesting and was listened to with marked attention by a very good sized audience.

The stated clerk, Rev. W. F. Brown, of this city, then called the roll, and the following ministers answered to their names:

Rev. John Winn, Madison; Rev. A. V. C. Schenck, Reedsburg; Rev. O. W. Winchester, Oregon; Rev. Jacob Conzelmann, Beloit; Rev. S. E. Vance, Lodi; Rev. W. A. McAtee, D. D. Madison; Rev. J. H. Ritchey, Portage; Rev. W. F. Brown, Janesville; Rev. Frederick L. Wolter, Muskego; Rev. Daniel E. Long, Baraboo; Rev. J. H. Longhin, Richland Center; Rev. J. G. Orr, Prairie du Sac; Rev. A. W. Gulick, Kilmour City.

The following elders also answered to their names:

Merton Seymour, Reedsburg; J. E. Moseley, Madison; L. J. Barrows, M. D. Janesville; A. F. Waterman, Beloit; D. S. Conger, Prairie du Sac; E. O. Holden, Baraboo.

They then proceeded to the election of moderator. Rev. J. H. Longhin, of Richland Center, was nominated as was also Rev. J. G. Orr, of Prairie du Sac. A vote was then taken and Rev. Orr receiving a majority of the votes cast was declared elected moderator. He accepted the office and thanking them for the honor took his seat.

The next in order was the election of a temporary clerk. Mr. A. V. Gulick, of Kilmour City, was elected to that office. After listening to and accepting the report of the committee of arrangements the Presbytery adjourned.

The committee of arrangements presented their programme as their report:

The presbytery again opened at 8:30 this morning. The first half hour was spent in prayer meeting led by the Rev. D. E. Long, after which the meeting was called to order and the minutes of the last meeting read.

Rev. A. W. McAtee, D. D., of Madison, offered a resolution as follows:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to recommend to the Presbytery some appropriate action in regard to the recent decision of the supreme court of Wisconsin forbidding the reading of the bible in the schools. Adopted.

A committee consisting of Rev. A. W. McAtee, of Madison; Rev. J. H. Ritchey, of Portage, and Elder E. O. Holden, of Baraboo, was appointed.

The report of the committee on standing rules was accepted, and it was ordered that 500 copies of the rules be printed and a sufficient number sent to each church by the stated clerk.

Alfred Smith, a student in the Duquesne Seminary, asked for license to preach, that he might be helped through college, and was examined, and on motion a recess was taken until 1 o'clock when the Presbytery again met and took up the afternoon programme.

This evening the services are public, and all are invited.

A SPENDID PAINTING.

Now on Exhibition at the Store of Messrs. Wilkins & Stratton, North Main Street.

There is on exhibition at the art store of Mr. Schulloff, an oil painting of an anatomical scene at Devil's Lake, by Mr. G. H. Plackett, of this city. The picture has excited the curiosity of apostles and the favorable criticism of connoisseurs. Of all the productions which have emanated from the inspiration of the most picturesque Wisconsin scenery, none have been treated with more beautiful touches, than has this very strong picture by Mr. Plackett.

A rocky precipice in the foreground rises perpendicularly upward and upon their wild, rugged outlines the evening sun is blazing with a most luminous effect, while in the background, a symphony of gold and purple autumn tints is dazzling with life and warmth. The picture was framed by Mr. Schulloff in the best style of his art and the drapery which he had hung about it makes it a picture worthy of a visit from all lovers of art. The painting will be on exhibition for several days when it will be exhibited in other cities of the state.—Madison Democrat.

The above picture is now on exhibition at the store of Messrs. Wilkins & Stratton, North Main street, near the Gazette office. Mr. D. W. Henry is showing the picture and cordially invites our people, especially the ladies, to call and see it.

"FACING THE MUSIC."

Twenty-three Applications for Licenses Filed To-day.

There have been twenty-three applications filed for saloon licenses to-day with the city clerk. Of this number eighteen paid or deposited the required four hundred dollars with the city treasurer. So far only three of the former applicants have withdrawn their applications and money. There is no likelihood that Janesville people will suffer in consequence.

THE WEATHER.

For Wisconsin—Fair—Warmer Weather—Preceded in Southern Portion by Rain—Variable Winds.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 45 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy, with northeast wind—heavy rain early last evening. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 55 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with east wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 70 and 81 degrees above zero.

PERSONAL.

Dr. W. O. Coffey arrived this morning, and will be at the Windsor for the next two weeks, and possibly longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Atwood, of St. Albans, Vermont, are in the city, the guests of Volney Atwood and family, South Franklin street.

Miss Maggie Henry and Miss Kittie Douglas left yesterday for Monmouth, Ill., to attend the inter-state meeting of Young People's Christian Endeavor Society, as delegates from the Scotch Presbyterian church of Rock Prairie.

An elegant line of fancy silk vests just received at Ziegler's.

GOD BLESS OUR MAYOR

For the Bold Stand Taken Before the Council on the Question of Granting Licenses.

HE WILL STAND FIRM BY THE FOUR HUNDRED DOLLAR FEE.

Requiring All Liquor Dealers to Take Out a Wholesale and Retail Saloon License.

Mayor St. John presided at the adjourned meeting of the common council last evening, all the aldermen being present.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

Ald. Horn, of the committee on gas lights, presented the following report:—

Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen of the Common Council:

On the question of new lamps for the use of the city, the committee met with Mr. Englund, manager of the Globe Light Co., and have arranged with that gentleman to place two lamps at such places as your committee may suggest, the lamps to remain for two weeks, until the committee have examined into their efficacy and superiority over the oil lamps now in use, after which time the Globe Light Co. will make a proposition to the council with a view to their adoption.

The report was received and placed on file.

On motion of Ald. Horn the opening of the bids for caring for the street oil lamps was postponed until such time as the gas light committee reported on the new lamps.

On motion of Ald. Horn, Mr. Rooney was employed to care for the oil lamps until the council awarded the new contract.

Ald. Thoroughgood, of the highway, street and bridge committee, submitted the following report in relation to the bids for furnishing lumber and sewer pipe:

Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen of the Council: Your committee, to whom was referred the several bids for sewer pipe and lumber for the ensuing year, beg leave to report favorably on the bid of Mr. A. E. Burpee, for supplying the city with lumber, as follows:

Common pine, 12, 14 and 16 feet long, at $13 per thousand and 50 cents extra per thousand above 16 feet. Your committee also recommends for your approval the bid of A. E. Burpee for furnishing the city with No. 1 Akron pipe, and that he be awarded the contract at prices quoted in his agreement as follows: Ten inch, 17 cents; 12 inch, 21 cents; 15 inch, 30 cents; 18 inch, 45 cents; and would instruct the city clerk to draw up a contract with Mr. Burpee to furnish none other than the quality above mentioned.

J. THOROUGHGOOD, C. S. JACMAN, O. D. KOWE, CHAS. HORN, Committee.

The report was adopted.

Ald. Horn—Mr. Mayor, I have a petition I desire to present.

Ald. Horn then read the names of forty-five individuals or firms, concluding with—"Mr. Mayor, I move that license be granted these parties by the council."

Mayor St. John—That motion is out of order. If you desire to get such a motion before the council, you must first reconsider the resolution adopted last evening.

Ald. McLean—I want to inquire what effect that resolution has on the motion City Attorney Doe—it has nothing whatever to do with it.

Mayor St. John—Then I declare the motion out of order for the reason that you are assuming a prerogative that does not belong to you but to me.

Ald. McLean—I would like to have the city attorney read the law relating to the granting of licenses.

City Attorney Doe read from the law, showing that it was clearly the duty of the mayor to grant all licenses, and the privilege of the common council to confirm such grants.

Mayor St. John—In conforming with the resolution adopted by the council on Monday evening, I deem the placing of a bundle of applicants for license who have not conformed to the law, sheer nonsense. I will put before the council the only one that has complied with the law. I find that William Father's is the only applicant complying with the law, and I have instructed the clerk to issue a license—wholesale and retail—to him, and I now place his name before the council for confirmation.

Ald. Jackman—I moved that the action of the mayor be confirmed.

Ayes—Ald. Jackman, McKee, Rose, Thoroughgood, Truelsen, Vankirk—6.

Nays—Ald. Childe, Horn, McLean, Ryan—4.

So the action of the mayor was confirmed.

At this point there appeared to be a lull in the proceedings and the silence was broken by Ald. Jackman entering a motion to adjourn, the motion went down for want of a second.

Ald. Horn—Your Honor, the resolution adopted by the common council on Monday night showed it to be the sense of the council that all applications for license shall include thereto a while can it be said and retail, possible that you can compel a man to do a business that he does not want to do? To make a man pay for what he does not want to pay? and has no right to pay? or to deprive a man from his business on twenty-four hours notice, by snide and underhanded work?

Ald. Jackman—I call Alderman Horn to order on account of the unparliamentary language he is using.

Mayor St. John called both gentlemen to order, and then directed Ald. Horn to proceed.

Ald. Horn—Why is it that we saloon keepers are compelled to take out a license we do not want, or be deprived of our business. The council has adopted a resolution instructing the city marshal to report any violation of the law. I am anxious and willing that he should report me if I violate the law. I want him to enforce the law. I will speak for the saloon keepers, and guarantee that all are of the same opinion regarding the enforcement of law. Enforce the law and we will be satisfied. If the law is violated revoke the license, that is all we ask of you.

Ald. McLean—I have heard that some saloon keepers cannot be compelled to take out a wholesale license. I would like to hear the opinion of the city attorney on this point.

City Attorney Doe—I can give my own idea. I have heard the matter discussed; some people are positive it could not be done. My judgment is that the matter is wholly in the hands of the mayor, and the council. The mayor can grant a license for any reason he sees fit, and he need not state his reason. The council can only confirm or reject the mayor's appointments. The matter is wholly in the control of the mayor and he can grant a license to whoever he pleases. No person has a right to demand a license. In some cities rules are adopted and they are followed. Under the present law the mayor can do as he pleases in granting licenses, and his reasons for so doing are immaterial.

Mayor St. John—I want to say a few words right here for the benefit of the aldermen and to saloon keepers, as I notice there are quite a number present. I want to say to you saloon keepers, that I can see no way out of this trouble except you come right up, and face the music. We have the lowest license in several states. I do not consider four hundred dollars an exorbitant license fee; everybody is coming here and they consider it a rich field. The license fee is lower in Janesville than any other city of the same size in the state. You say you cannot afford to pay four hundred dollars. Many people are coming here, some from St. Paul, and starting saloons. These who cannot pay four hundred dollars had better be in some other business. If I had a brother in the saloon business I would do all in my power to get him out. It is not because I have any spite against the saloon keepers; some of my warmest friends are saloon keepers. The more I loved a man the harder I would work to get him out of the business. I don't see why you should be angry with me when you have had your licenses at one-quarter or one-half of what other people pay in the state. Come right up to the front and pay and don't be angry and try to go it in some other way. I have many friends engaged in the saloon business. This is no spite work. Some of the saloon keepers might better be in some other business as they are now ruining themselves. This is no fault of mine, but of their own, and perhaps I should not allude to it. Yet I have no ill-will towards any of you, and hope you have none towards me. Alderman Horn spoke about forcing people to pay for a wholesale license. Alderman Horn knows, and I know, that there is not a saloon in the city but violates the wholesale license law and sells from one to three kegs of beer a day. There is not one of you but what I could have taken your license away any day during the past year if I had constituted myself a "smelling committee" and gone prying around. But I did not do it; I could not afford to do it. I have but one officer to watch fifty saloons—and I am sorry to say that you all need watching; and as long as you all need watching, for God's sake give me as few to watch as possible. I propose to stand by the four hundred dollar license fee, because I think I am right and doing my duty. I do not wish to wrong any man. You can say all the mean things about me and abuse me as much as you please and I will stand it, because I think I am doing what is right.

Mayor St. John notified the council that he had granted druggists' permits to the following persons: W. McLean, Prentice & Evenson, Frank Sherer & Co., Stearns & Baker, Palmer & Stevens, E. B. Heimstreet and W. M. Eldredge.

Ald. Horn moved that the permits be filed at $200 each. There were not two druggists that sold less whiskey than he did during the year.

Ald. Jackman moved that the action of the mayor in granting the permits be confirmed.

Ald. Horn said that it seemed to him that the mayor was courting drunkenness without a license; that he was favoring some at the expense of others.

His Honor called Ald. Horn to order and requested him to confine his remarks to the question.

Ald. Jackman's motion was adopted. The council adjourned.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

The Proceedings Before Judge Patterson in Police Court Today.

Yesterday afternoon in the assault and battery case of the state against Fritz Baetke, defendant was found guilty and fined $5.00 and costs. The case was appealed. Harry Daterkosen was the complaining witness.

This morning Marshal Hogan marched into court followed by four downcast looking gentlemen who were charged with being drunk and disorderly. All looked as though they might have been Michael Joyce was the first. It cost him ten dollars and in default he will linger in durandville for ten days.

Michael Gagan, John Connors and William Garry were also "aby" $10 and had to take ten days each.

A Surprise Party.

Last evening the home of Mrs. Alice Taylor, 226 North Main street, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of young people, it being a surprise party on her daughter, Miss Anna. Between twenty-five and thirty were present and the evening was pleasantly spent in games and music. The young hostess was the recipient of a large number of elegant presents, it being the occasion of her eighteenth birthday. A delicious supper was served and the guests departed at a late hour wishing their hostess many bright and happy birthdays.

NEW HARNES SHOP.

Mr. Ed. H. Murdock, the Proprietor of the Corn Exchange Harness Shop.

Mr. E. H. Murdock has purchased the stock and fixtures of Worthington's harness shop on the corn exchange, formerly run by Mr. William Winsley. He has taken possession, and will immediately put in new stock, and have everything first class. Mr. Jacob Brandt will still be in charge of the harness making department as of old. Mr. Murdock is a hustler, and will make a success of
